An experienced, skilled intellectual property counselor and litigator, Tim Matson brings a big picture, yet practical, perspective to providing effective solutions for entertainment and business clients. Tim, a Lommen Abdo shareholder, provides transactional and trial services for a myriad of artists, entertainers and emerging businesses that create and distribute content and technology.

EXPERTISE & WORK HIGHLIGHTS

- » Tim's focus is on intellectual property. He recently served as trial counsel with Phil Cole in the successful defense of a Minnesota distributor of home computer software products against claims of $21.5 million for copyright infringement brought by an Irish publisher of software product.

EDUCATION & CREDENTIALS

- » Tim is a 1991 graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School and a 1988 graduate of St. Olaf College. Tim is admitted to practice before all state and federal courts in Minnesota and has been admitted to practice in New York and California on a case-by-case basis.

Advice on intellectual property: "Just like a yearly visit to the family doctor, an intellectual property audit should be regular and systematic."
