Nick Dolejsi joined Lommen Abdo as an associate in January. Nick has a finance degree from the University of Kansas and he graduated cum laude from Hamline Law School in 2009 after receiving the Presidential Scholarship, a full academic scholarship. While in law school, he was the Constance L. Bakken Fellow and received CALI Awards (Top Performer in Class) in Tax II: Taxation of Business Entities, Corporate Finance and Professional Responsibility. Nick's primary focus is litigation.

Lommen Abdo is a multi-faceted Midwestern-based law firm committed to providing practical, effective legal services to both businesses and individuals. At Lommen Abdo, you will find trial attorneys, venture capital and finance attorneys, personal injury attorneys, vaccine injury attorneys, appellate advocates, employment attorneys, real estate attorneys, family law attorneys, estate planning attorneys and much, much more. Our attorneys' credentials are significant: 26 are AV-rated by Martindale Hubbell, four have been selected by their peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® 2008 (Copyright 2007 by Woodward/White, Inc., of Aiken, S.C.), 11 are included in the Minnesota Super Lawyers list by Law & Politics, and many have obtained certifications in trial practice and real estate. The firm has offices in Minneapolis, Minnesota; Hudson, Wisconsin; and New York City. Lommen Abdo has evolved over the past 70 years, expanding our legal services as our clients have prospered and expanded.

Please contact Nick when you have legal needs. Lommen Abdo would be pleased to work with you.
